AUTOMOBILE THROUGHPUT IN BREMEN AND BREMERHAVEN

An aerial photograph showing a vast parking lot filled with hundreds of cars, mostly dark-colored sedans and some white ones, arranged in neat rows. The cars are parked on a light-colored surface, and the perspective is from a high angle, looking down on the lot. The cars are densely packed, filling the entire frame.

EUROPE'S SECOND-LARGEST TERMINAL FOR AUTOMOBILE TRANSHIPMENT

First-class automobile terminal

The ports of Bremen have almost 100,000 parking spaces, half of them covered, for automobile handling. This range of service has established the ports of Bremen as one of the largest automobile hubs anywhere in the world.

INLAND BARGES IN BREMEN AND BREMERHAVEN

TOP-RANKING LOCATION FOR INLAND SHIPPING

The ports of Bremen are not only a traditional location for maritime shipping, but also for the inland shipping sector. It is a little known fact that Bremen and Bremerhaven are not only the second-largest German seaport, but also very important ports of call for inland shipping in Germany.

CONTAINER HINTERLAND TRAFFIC
TO AND FROM BREMERHAVEN

A HEART FOR THE RAILWAY

BREMERHAVEN RAIL PORT

Every year, almost half the containers (TEU) on hinterland routes are transported by rail. Thanks to their traditional links with the railway, the ports of Bremen have well developed rail infrastructure with tracks which now measure a total length of 192 km.

VESSELS DRAUGHT IN BREMEN AND BREMERHAVEN

MAINTAINING THE WATER DEPTHS

DEEP ENOUGH TO COPE WITH HUGE VESSELS

Shipping needs sufficiently deep water and this is also true at the ports of Bremen. Water depths that satisfy market demand are essential for the efficiency and competitiveness of the ports of Bremen.
